

BECOME A MEMBER:

The Society for Midwest Metalsmiths was established in January 1995 as a not-for-profit organization. The Society's goal is to promote, develop, educate and encourage individuals interested in metalsmithing.

SMM provides a newsletter, workshops, lectures, juried and non-juried exhibition opportunities, a web site and a web based Chat Group. Membership is open to all interested parties, without regard to race, religion, sex, age or national origin.

SMM and METAL Inclinations is supported in part by:

ACTIVITIES OF THE SOCIETY FOR MIDWEST METALSMITHS

MEETINGS: SMM holds regular meetings in January, March, May, September and November at 12:00 noon, in the main Art and Design Building at Maryville University in St. Louis, Missouri. E-mail metalsmiths@mail.com for exact dates.

PROGRAMS/EVENTS: There is usually a demonstration or program of interest, following the scheduled membership meet-

WORKSHOPS: Approximately five to six times a year SMM

EXHIBITIONS: SMM provides juried and non-juried exhibitions and other opportunities for members to exhibit and sell their metal work.

NEWSLETTER: Our newsletters keep members up to date on important issues between meetings and aware of all future events. They also provide a showcase for members' accomplishments.

SCHOLARSHIPS: SMM allocates funding to deserving metalsmithing students. A committee makes determinations based upon review of all applications.

WEB SITE: SMM maintains a web site for informational and educational purposes, you can find our website at www.midwest-metalsmiths.org. Details of upcoming workshops, lectures and other events are posted. All members receive free web space to showcase a photo of their work on the Members' Gallery page with an e-mail link or link to their personal web site. SMM also provides an informational Chat Group. Special announcements are posted and members can add their own announcements and ask questions to get input from the entire SMM membership.
